Vincent D'Onofrio of the series Law & Order Criminal Intent will be in Mexico City on August 26th to promote his show/program transmitted through Sony. This New Yorker wants to promote his show.

This actor has been in the movies Men In Black, Thirteenth Floor, The Cell and was invited by the directors of Sony.

This actor will be reunited with the Mexican Media in a restaurant called the Polanco to give more details about the series in which he is a detective by the name of Bobby Goren.

The series Law and Order Criminal Intent will be shown on Sony on Saturday nights at 9 PM and it will rerun on Sundays at 9 AM.

Vincent D'Onofrio is saying "Bobby Goren will take you through different stories per week. Sometimes it is a who did it and sometimes it is a why did they do it. The fun and interesting part about our show is the audience knows things he does not know but later Goren knows what the audience knows."

The history is the media finds he knows things the audience does not know. The whole history is a game and we all have the opportunity to play along.

He is known as the humanameleon. The actor is one of the founders of the River Run Film Festival in North Carolina.

The actor was raised in Hawaii, Colorado and Florida. Then he went to study at the American Stanislavsky Theatre. While he was there, ink was being put down by writers for him to do another part as Bill Newman in the mega movie JFK, where the director was Oliver Stone in 1991.
